POCHE STOCKS.

Table with 2 columns: Stock Name and Price. Includes items like 50 Meadow Valley, 55 Raymond & Ely, 57 Poché, etc.

FOR THE BENEFIT OF GEORGE MCKEAN.

Subscription papers have been left at the offices of the different mining companies, and other places, to raise a fund for the benefit of George McKean, the young man who lost his eye, and was otherwise injured, by a blast in the Peacock mine, a few weeks since. We are pleased to know some generous souls are being subscribed—some marking themselves down for $20. We hope the aggregate will reach at least $3,000, or an amount sufficient to purchase a living-affording home for the unfortunate man after he reaches his family friends. He lost the physical ability to provide for himself in industrious working to develop the mineral resources of this camp, and the camp must not allow him to go forth on the world a homeless wanderer. Every consideration of the sad case is an appeal to the hearts and purses of our people. Mr. McKean is a young man of unusually good moral character; he worked hard; dealt fairly; is a man of generous impulses, and did not squander the fruits of his toil in debauchery and dissipation. Would it not be well to send copies of the subscription paper to some of the outside camps?

DOMESTIC INFELICITY.

Every few days a woman makes her appearance at the Justice's office and requests a warrant to be issued for the arrest of her husband, usually alleging that he had whipped her and thrown himself and children out into the street; but would as often try to conceal him when an officer would go to serve the warrant, or beg to have the complaint withdrawn and the case dismissed. She appeared again yesterday, bathed in tears, and said she had been violently thrust out of the home her own industry had secured, and otherwise abused. This time, having so often been trifled with, the Justice declined to entertain the complaint. But we wish to give that brutal husband a little warning, based on several anonymous letters we have received from those supposed to be his neighbors. His wife's misplaced devotion will not much longer shield him from punishment for his brutality. He will probably find it altogether to his advantage to behave himself in future.

THE CORONER'S INQUEST IN THE CASE OF P. H. O'BRIEN.

The coroner's inquest in that case was not concluded yesterday, the investigations having been adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning. No new or important facts were elicited yesterday. The stomach has been secured for analysis, should future development render analysis necessary. A close and minute post-mortem examination showed that all the organs were in a healthy condition. It is not likely that O'Brien drank liquor so basely adulterated with deadly poison as to cause his death.

OFFICER MCKEE BROUGHT TO THE ENLARGE.

about four o'clock yesterday afternoon, a fellow of gigantic proportions, covered from head to foot with mud, who was laboring under the hallucination, through the inspiration of rot-gut, that another Sampson had arisen, whose special mission it was to slay human beings by the thousand; and, further, that he was himself the terrible bruiser aforesaid. We have no doubt he felt on awakening this morning that his locks of pride and power had been clipped.

ARRIVED FROM PARRANAGAT.

Messrs. Chas. G. Heath and W. M. Wilson, both well-known pioneers of Parranagat district, arrived from there yesterday. Mr. Heath is Superintendent of the Hiko Silver Mining Company, and Mr. Wilson is extensively interested in mining property there. They represent, as all lately from that section have done, that the prospect is bright for Parranagat ranking high for bullion-production in the near future.

PURCHASED.

Charley Wiederhold has purchased the property on Meadow Valley street just above Lynch's restaurant, known as the "Arcade," paying therefor $2,800. We don't know what Mr. Wiederhold proposes to do with the property, but have heard a branch of his news department hinted at.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The Board met last Monday, pursuant to adjournment. Present—D. A. Fulk, Chairman; T. J. Jones, Commissioner, and P. B. Miller, Clerk.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

Felsenthal, merchandise, $12; Louis Sultan, School Superintendent, $100; Jacobs & Sultan, merchandise, $149; D. Hunt, expenses to Carson, $379.

The account of H. Voss for $39 was rejected.

Official bond of T. R. Bird, Justice of the Peace, Clover Valley Township, presented and approved.

The salary of the School Superintendent was fixed at $50 a month from and after March 1, 1873.

K. J. Hanley, County Assessor and ex-officio Tax Collector, is required to file an additional bond in the sum of $15,000.

The District Attorney is required immediately to commence suit against ex-Sheriff Kane and his bondsmen for the recovery of $3,500, the amount of his alleged delinquency.

The District Attorney is required immediately to commence suit against ex-County Assessor Curtis and his bondsmen for the recovery of $900, the amount of his alleged delinquency.

Board adjourned to Monday, March 10, 1873.

ARRIVAL OF COLONEL WM. RAYMOND.

Colonel Wm. Raymond, long expected, has arrived at last. No man living could be more heartily welcomed to Pioche than the Colonel. He is the popular man of Southeastern Nevada—is liked by everybody—admired for his indomitable energy and practical good sense, and respected by friend and foe for the firmness with which he maintains what he justly believes to be right, whether his own or others' interests are involved. He has done more, all agree, towards the development of this famous silver district than any other single man; and no one else is doing more to-day to maintain its character and protect its interests. He is fortunate in the enjoyment of what few successful men ever possess at the same time—wealth and prosperity along with almost universal esteem and respect. May his shadow never grow less, and his worldly prospects continue to brighten with the progress and development of Ely mining district.

SINGULAR CASE.

A miner by the name of Howe came rushing into Dr. Deal's office early yesterday morning with a dislocated jaw, caused by excessive gaping. It was a marked case, and it required considerable force to effect the reduction. He seemed to suffer but slight pain, and stood the operation of reduction with good nerve. And after it was all over he laughed so heartily over the ludicrousness of the event, that it is a wonder another dislocation did not take place. Such cases are not of general occurrence, but are common enough in the surgical records.

A MAIN STREET FIGHT.

Yesterday forenoon John Maginnis and Nicholas Dickman came to blows, in front of the Justice's office, on Main street, over some business transaction, and fought lively and long enough to draw a large crowd around them. Officer Gray arrested them before a decisive result was reached, and each pleading guilty to disturbing the peace, paid his fine, and was discharged.

FIGHT ON LACOUR STREET.

Two Frenchmen were engaged, yesterday morning, in a fistfight on Lacour street. Sheriff Travis was passing, and brought the hostilities to an end by arresting both. They pleaded guilty, paid their fines, and left the Court-room as if they were pleased at having fallen into the clutches of the law before hurting each other any worse.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

Judges Garber and Hardy, and Colonel Wm. Raymond arrived by last stage from Hamilton. Judge Garber will remain in Pioche indefinitely, and Judge Hardy through the present term of the District Court, probably. He is retained in one or more of the heavy mining suits pending.

FUNERAL OF P. H. O'BRIEN.

The funeral of P. H. O'Brien, the man who died suddenly at McAlpin's lodging-house, Tuesday, took place at half-past three o'clock yesterday afternoon. The funeral was well attended.

THERE IS A CASE OF MALIGNANT OR DROPSICAL EPIDEMIC AT THE DEXTER STABLES.

This is the only sick animal at those stables. He is a valuable horse, the property of Mr. Steele, the builder.

THEATRE.—Last night, in consequence of the great amount of preparation necessary for the production of "Colleen Bawn," which has been for some time in rehearsal, "Elizabeth" was produced with the same excellent effects as before. Tonight Bourcicault's great Irish drama of the "Colleen Bawn, or the Brides of Garryowan" will be produced with all the original Irish music incidental to the play. Mrs. F. M. Bates plays Anne Chute—a role in which she is famous. Mr. F. M. Bates as Myles na Coppaleen; Eily O'Connor Miss Marian, and the rest of the characters are well cast. We have no need to say anything regarding the sale of tickets, for we know they will sell. This play has never failed to draw big houses, not for a night or two, but for several months, in the large cities. Box office is open from 9 a. m. to 7 p. m., at Mr. Gorman's office next door to Clancy's saloon. The play will be well put on the stage. Mr. Schofield has painted some fine new scenery for it, and the mechanical effects were executed by Mr. Applebee. The manager spares no expense in scenic preparations, and we trust the public will foster and liberally encourage his enterprise.

IMPROVING THE CITY.—Mr. H. Ward

yesterday made a contract for twenty shade trees, locust and black walnut, to be put in the ground as soon as the weather is favorable. One hundred dollars is to be paid for the trees when they leave. Mr. Ward will put some in front of his residence, opposite the Court-house; and others in front of his business block and down at his cemetery. We should like to hear of other citizens embellishing their premises with shade trees.

THERE'S NOTHING MEAN ABOUT THE CHRISTIANS

of Pioche. They gave a minister there the other day a donation party, and among the presents were six revolvers, four bowie-knives, two double-barrelled shot-guns, one bottle of whiskey and five gallons of beer.—[Territorial Enterprise. He indignantly left us and went to Virginia, because his congregation wouldn't allow him to use the pulpit for a faro bank on week days. He says his services will be better appreciated in that place.

AT WORK AT LAST.—We were yesterday

pleased to see our efficient County Surveyor, E. Schoppmann, at work running out and establishing the lines of the town site, preparatory to making entry thereof under the Congressional act on the subject. No delay will be made in perfecting the entry, we understand, when accomplished citizens will secure indefeasible titles to their town property. It is an important matter, and should have been taken in hand long ago.

ANOTHER BILK.—We have been requested to publish the name of one of the numerous small swindlers in our midst who induced a hard-working miner to give him a month's wages, to help him make up the purchase money of a business house. Instead of this applying it he banked it, the cashier receiving it over a counter covered with green cloth. Give us positive proof of such swindles, and we will give the swindlers local notices gratuitously.

OFF FOR THE EAST.—Our popular Sheriff,

W. S. Travis, leaves on this morning's coach for San Francisco, where he will spend a few days, and then go to New York. He will be absent several weeks. We wish him a safe and pleasant trip, going and coming.

PLENTY OF SNOW LEFT.—Surveyor

Schoppmann informs us that he found the snow waist-deep in some places, yesterday, when running out the town site lines.

RECORDED HENDERSON, we regret to hear, has been so ill, for a few days, that he is confined to his bed. He is getting better, and may be in his office to-day.

EDWARD WEST, reported dead in several papers, is in this city, alive and thriving. He did come near dying in Arizona a few months ago, however.

TO ARRIVE TO-DAY.—The following passengers left Hamilton yesterday, for Pioche, who will arrive by to-day's stage: A. A. Mandy, A. A. Wager.

USON DONELLY, if you see this, call at the Record office, or send a letter to us. We know of something to your advantage.

A WHIT OF ATTACHMENT, the other day, saw a quantity of jewelry worn by the person attached.

CONSIDERABLE IMPROVEMENT IN PROGRESS

in the way of making crossings and repairing sidewalks. Glad to see it.

A LITTLE BLUSTERY LAST NIGHT, after several hours of pleasant sunny weather.
